

The Thorns, Runaway Feeling

Is a runaway feelin' about as big as the sky?
You know the rock and roll feelin'
Really makes you feel high

Tell me I'm the one you wanna play with
Tell me I'm the one you really need
Tell me I'm the one you're bound to stay with
When you're free to do what you please

It's a runaway feelin' once you make up your mind
(what you're feeling) (make up your mind)
To let the runaway feelin' leave all your troubles behind
(that you're feeling) (leave them behind)

Tell me I'm the one you wanna play with
Tell me I'm the one you really need
Tell me I'm the one you're bound to stay with
When you're free to do what you please

And you're free (run run, run away run run run run away)
Do what you please (run run, run away run run run run away)

Rollin' and a reelin' no way of slowin' it down
I'll take this runaway feelin'
And ride it out of this town

Tell me I'm the one you wanna play with
Tell me I'm the one you really need
Tell me I'm the one you're bound to stay with
When you're free to do what you please

And you're free (run run, run away run run run run away)
Do what you please (run run, run away run run run run away)
Do what you please (run run run run away run run run run away)
