The Thrills, Plans (EP Version)

Lately I'm gettin the impression That my baby Is moving down to LA

For the big lights
Flashing and reflecting
In her big eyes
Hey nothing here could make her stay

Everybody's got to have plans, she said Everybody's got to have plans, Cos I can't see you smiling pumping gas

Some low life B-movie producer And his Big talk Now dont you go buy into that

Cos sometimes
Things are gonna get tough
And you know what
You're gonna have to get tough too

Everybody's got to have plans, she said Everybody's got to have plans, Cos I can't see you smiling pumping gas

Everybody's got to have plans, she said Everybody's got to have plans, Cos I can't see you smiling pumping gas

So come home, baby, baby Just don't phone, baby, baby Yeah you went and did it You broke my heart (Hold, hold, hold me now)

Everybody's got to have plans, she said Everybody's got to have plans, Cos I can't see you smiling pumping gas
