The Tiger Lillies, Old Gracefully

The shit-stains on your sheets Show you've got three more weeks You won't grow old gracefully

The skin pulled from your cheeks You're voice is growing weak You won't grow old gracefully

And I remember when You didn't pretend

I remember in St. James Park When we both did laugh About growing old gracefully

Were you promiscuous I only ask because We won't grow old gracefully

And I remember on the Thames You knew you'd reached the end You won't grow old gracefully
