

The Tiger Lillies, Tick Tock

Tick tock goes the clock tick tick tick tick tick tick tock
I remember as a young man in the young girl's arms
Now I'm old and impotent waiting to be embalmed
I remember as a young man marriage and childbirth
Now I'm old and cynical and I've got a bloated girth
I remember as a young man unsteady on my feet
Now I need a walking stick and I haven't got any teeth
