

The Toobes, Road To The Big Time

I need to break the walls
Catch the life's train now and rails
Better find me tomorrow

Maybe the runway I choose
But the way to now the way I lose
All the things I found before
My love, my joy and my sorrow

A cup of coffee and a cigarette
I have enough for a whole day
And round and round again
Road to the big time
Road to the big time
I'm on the road again

I took a deep breath and smiled
And I know what I want
Is the light of the second of life
Smiles as I'm the morning's tilt
Feel as I used to feel and now I'm alive
And live with my love, my joy and my sorrow

A cup of coffee and a cigarette
I have enough for a whole day
And round and round again
Road to the big time
Road to the big time
I'm on the road again

Road to the big time
Out the road
Road to the big time
Out the road
I'm on the road again
