

The Toy Dolls, Cheerio & Toodle Pip

Who's a pretty boy then?

Your girlfriend says when she's got you wearing a tie
You're looking like a puff and you think I've had enough
Stop and take a look at yourself for a while
And you'll know it's time to say

CHORUS:

Cheerio, cheerio

Toodle pip, toodle pip

This is our last goodbye

Don't cry

Cheerio, cheerio

Toodle pip, toodle pip

Our last farewell, goodbye.

Sitting watching Coronation street

You decide to put your feet up, just about comfy in your seat

And she says, I'm feeling hungry

If she sends you out for a bag of fish'n'chips

You'll know it is time to say...

CHORUS

Need a bit of shut eye so you lie on the couch

She is yapping in the background

Baby's things wedding rings

It's not for you, she will never keep her mouth shut

You have to tell her now, once and for all

Coz now it's time to say...
