

The Transplants, Quick Death

&quot;Quick Death&quot;

Album : Transplants

&quot;And I ask you, my brothers and sisters, who is the true animal?&quot;

Looks so violent.

Death is silent.

Beating me with your words (Im bleeding now).

Battled to your head

And degenerating here at the brand new hope.

Devils surround me.

Anger astounds me.

Tearing apart my soul (beneath my guts).

About to go outside,

But it was then I,

Seemed to have lost control

&quot;And now, my brothers and sisters, the inversion begins&quot;

Forever in night light.

Losing in hindsight.

Ownership changes hands (you'll never know).

It only gets through me (causing a slow death).

Welcome to human hell.

I've got you a new fate.

Back in the sweepstakes.

Leaving the streets behind (your final sign).

Silence is true peace (Dont ever read me).

Aloud cause Ill take your life.

Ill have you,

Ill have you [4x]

wishing for

I'll have you

Ill have you

Ill have you,

Ill have you [4x]

wishing for

A quick death [10x]

Ill have you,

Ill have you [3x]

wishing for

Ill have you

Ill have you

Ill have you,

Ill have you [4x]
