

The Trews, Not Ready To Go

It's never ending, as far as I know
But there's a doubt you feel, between us both
You're grounded daily, I'm on a cloud
I float up every night, as you come down
I'm not ready to go
Are you unhappy, or are you low?
I should be leaving but I'm not ready to go
I'm not ready to go
Even if you think I'm crazy, drunk, and stoned
I don't wanna be messed up alone
There's nothing wrong here
There's nothing wrong here
There's nothing wrong here
There's nothing wrong....
I'm not ready to go
