

The Tubes, After All You Said

(Steen/Waybill)

I guess you're still too wild

after all you said

and did not mean

What hides behind the smile

after all you said

and made believe

Riding line doesn't sound so bad

Just the wide open spaces

Lots of time to reflect the past

Lots of time to forget your face

Someone

I thought we talked about it all

Somewhere

Who wrote the writing on the wall

Somehow

It just took some time to reveal

Someone

The lies were painfully real

Imagine for so long

after all you said

and would not say

Illusions are all wrong

after all you said

and could explain

Riding line doesn't sound so bad

Just the wide open spaces

Someone

I thought we talked about it all

Somewhere

Who wrote the writing on the wall

Somehow

It just took some time to reveal

Someone

The lies were painfully real

No more tears

after all you said

Can't expect the clouds to clear if you're left in darkness

Your reflection's not in the mirror

I suspect you're heartless
