

The Twilight Singers, Black Swan

it was early sunday morning i was running from the cold daylight what's your name?
i don't remember
anything that happened late last night
come on, baby
save me
love me
betray me
i'm crazy
you make me
ain't that every song you love?
i gotta little money
but that can only buy me love a little game where nothing's ever good enough a little fire. i'm insane another pitiful refrain i wanna get higher than i've ever been you take me there, i'll break you in
come on, baby
save me
love me
betray me
i'm crazy
you break me
ain't that every song you love?
you love my eyes
my sweet disguise
i'll tell you what you want to hear, my dear
