

The Unseen, Scream Out

1, 2, 3, Go!

Well all my life this music saved me
I can't afford no therapy
My frustration it needs release,
So cut me open and hear me bleed
Playing punk keeps me sane
I don't need drugs to numb the pain
It keeps me alive, I hope it helps you
I won't let your worthless America ruin me
NO WAY!

I'm screaming out, somebody listen,
It feels so good, this therapy!

[x2]

I lost control and hurt myself
I knew deep down that I needed some help
That self abuse it would not stop,
No matter how hard I tried
So I lied when I tried
To pull my life together
Am I going insane? Think again
I just got so fed up with being unstable
NO MORE!

I'm screaming out, somebody listen,
It feels so good, this therapy!

[x8]

I'm screaming out! [x7]
Get me some help!
