

The Unseen, Social Security

I'm a punk get off my ass because I'm fucking working class I get up everyday and go to work I'm treated like a fucking jerk They suck my money every week now my future's looking bleak they say the money's almost gone but what will I do when my time comes hey! hey! hey!

Blue collar job you and I kiss your hard-earned dough goodbye Soon you'll be old you'll be gray
And how will you earn your pay For over 40 years you broke your back But they gave your money to some bum on crack they say we won't get it but fucking the govt's leeches are still money sucking

hey! hey! hey!

Did you hear what they want to do to you and me they wanna take away our social security
