

The Unseen, Too Young To Know

too young to know, we're too reckless to care too young to know, you were never even there
too young to know, now i just dont fucking care!

hello dear father you did a hell of a job i sit and ponder wondering what the fuck is wrong here's some toys, give this check to your mom cause if i dont pay, the judge wont let daddy come

too young to know, now i just dont fucking care!

the marriage vows are such a fucking joke how many times can one person have and hold sickness and health means nothing to me we are the future of this dysfunctional society

too young to know, now i just dont fucking care!

pack your bags and leave the family you built i hope your feeling lots of loneliness and guilt so many fuck and knock there girlfriends up desert your family and let your kids raise themselves

HEY DAD FUCK YOU
