

The Variants, The Air

Quiet voices of this roses
Changing us too much
Chasing people
Like vehicles
By ? to lost your mind
Trying ?, longing harder
Every day doesn?t give me he break
Reason that
Fallin down
Like a ..
Become a pain

Every time I see your eyes
Every time I see your smile
Every day I look at you
Every day when sky is blue
Every time I see your eyes
Every time I see

Deep emotion
With forces
Changing us too much
Is it miracle?
Does it ridicules
To believe
I can?t survive

..
Our faces don?t show what we always feel
Staying hide under black mask
It confuse that we always keep

Every time I see your eyes
Every time I see your smile
Every day I look at you
Every day when sky is blue
Every time I see your eyes
Every time I see you
The air to breath

Feel the Air
Feel the Air
Feel the Air
Feel the Air
