The Vines, Homesick

I left my home I left my home yeah, yeah Where I should go Where I should go yeah, yeah

Nothin's gonna save you Nothin's gonna save you out there

Went on my own Went on my own yeah, yeah Without my phone Without my phone yeah, yeah

Nothin's gonna save you Nothin's gonna save you out there Nothin's gonna save you Nothin's gonna save you or give

I can see the leaves of golden glisten in the sun Making time for everyone is what I should have done. Blue and green with eyes between are acting all the same You and me are never free until we're cast away

But it really doesn't matter couldn't change it if I tried Though it really doesn't matter I'll do it till I get it right
