

The W's, Chump

Standing on the corner of the street
Waiting for you in this humid heat
Because you're late again
And I think this is the end

I'm not going to wait for you anymore
I'm not going to wait for you anymore
I'm not going to wait for you anymore
No, no, no

Listening to the ringing of the phone
Pretending that you are not at home
You don't wanna talk to me
You weren't at the Beanery

I'm not going to wait for you anymore
I'm not going to wait for you anymore
I'm not going to wait for you anymore
No, no, no

Sorry I left you behind
Sorry you're not on time
Sorry it's 3 A.M.
And you are late again

Standing on stage ready to go
Wondering if you are going to show
Because you're late again
And I think this is the end

I'm not going to wait for you anymore
I'm not going to wait for you anymore
No, I don't want to be your friend anymore
