

The W's, Two More Weeks to Go

We played this song for the millionth time today
How long can this go on?
Two chords and a catchy phrase have paved our way
This fad is still going strong

Wo, oh, oh two more weeks to go, oh, oh
Two more weeks to go, oh, oh
Then we get to go home

Floor of the van is my bed
I lay and listen to the sounds
The engine whirs in my head
My body's tossed all around

Wo, oh, oh two more weeks to go, oh, oh
Two more weeks to go, oh, oh
Then we get to go home

Claustrophobia is setting in
These spaces seem so small
Two more weeks and then we're done
But it still seems so long

Wo, oh, oh two more weeks to go, oh, oh
Two more weeks to go, oh
Two more weeks to go, oh, oh
Then we get to go home

Two more weeks to go, oh
Two more weeks to go, oh, oh
Then we get to go home
