

The Waterboys, Let Me Feel Holy Again

There's a man that I know
In trouble, afraid and in need of a friend
Please, Lord, let me feel holy again

Am I hurting myself
Or am I low as I can bend ?
Please, Lord, let me feel holy again

I've spread my wings and I know many things
But knowing isn't real
I know you're walking with me
I know you're talking with me
But how long, Lord, before I can feel ?

If I've got a long way to go
I'll use every minute that you send
Please, Lord, let me feel holy again
