

The Weeknd, A Lesser Man

What you don't even know
I'm a deadbeat man, never know when to fold
Spent a lot for your soul
You gon' make that back I'm gonna take what I own
Far away from my home
In this hot ass town but my blood still cold
Better let them know

When you see them that you make sure they pay you
Pay you in cash
I don't do favors
I don't do that
You don't want to see me
See me get mad
No matter how bad you, you think I am

I'm a lesser man, a lesser man, a lesser man
Than you think I am
You think you know but you have no idea
I'm a lesser man, you're the best of them, fuck the rest of them
I'm a lesser man
Than you know

Show the world what I know
How you work that tongue to collect their souls
Seen you do it before
Make them fall in love make them beg for more
You can put on a show
You're my one top star you're my bottom girl
And before you kiss them and go

Don't leave until you make sure they pay you
Pay you in cash
I don't do favors
I don't do that
You don't want to see me
See me get mad
No matter how bad you, you think I am

I'm a lesser man, a lesser man, a lesser man
Than you think I am
You think you know but you have no idea
I'm a lesser man, you're the best of them, fuck the rest of them
I'm a lesser man
Than you know

A lesser man than you think I am
A lesser man than you think I am, I am, am
I think you should know, darling
Ah, ah, ah

A lesser man than you think I am
