

The Wilkinsons, Me Myself And I

(Rob Crosby/Charlie Craig/Steve Wilkinson)

Me, sitting here by myself
Wondering what I can do
Now that I don't have to you
And me, trying to tell myself
That I'm gonna find a way
To change your mind someday

Me, myself and I
There's three good reasons why
You should turn around
And come back home tonight
And my heart is sure
No one else could love you more
Than me, myself and I

Me, looking hard at myself
Without you by my side
How will I ever survive
And you, do you ever think of us
And wonder who still loves you
Well I know three fools that do

Just me, myself and I
