

Thea Gilmore, And We'll Dance

Meet me by the tail lights
Meet me here by moonlight
Meet me by the river bed
And well dance

Meet me where the sky bleeds
Meet me by the needle priest
Meet me by the window
And well dance

We will dance to the music of this motorway
We will dance to the drums of the street cabaret
I dont care if all of our steps come out wrong
Cause you see weve been here all along

Meet me where the silk tears
Meet me in your double dares, double dares
Meet me as the bell tolls
And well dance

Meet me by the ruined tower
Meet me in your final hour
Meet me as the sun goes down
And well dance
And well dance

We will dance to the music of this motorway
We will dance to the drums of the street cabaret
I dont care if all of our steps come out wrong
Cause you see weve been here all along

And well dance
And well dance
And well dance
