

Theo Lawrence, Pick The Right Man

I haven't felt this way in years and it's all due to your charms
But to love you truly baby promise that your past won't do me any harm
The flirt I had with you was a splendid way to spend such an evening
You and I got chemistry but I don't wanna be a rebound darling

Prove me that the guy before me
Is not racing with me to your loving arms
Takes a while to let go, when you've loved someone before
Pick the right man
I'll be sure then

I got all the the time in the world now that I feel I've found the right girl
The bare mention of your name got me spinning like a cotton candy twirl

Prove me that the guy before me
Is not racing with me to your loving arms
Takes a while to let go, when you've loved someone before
Pick the right man
I'll be sure then
