

Theocracy, Ichthus

The Price upon my head is death
They've pushed us underground for all who dare to speak the name the iron fist comes down face the test, put to death if discovered its the price we pay Lord, bless my brothers with courage I pray (Enemies castigate
but darkness doth illuminate Irony: the blood we bleed
every drop this fire feeds
into forever...)
Lines of faith drawn in the sand, completed by another Stranger, show me where you stand and if you are my brother
One part by me, one by you
CENTURIES FLY
BUT THE FLAME IS STILL ALIVE
THE MAY HIDE IT, BUT IT WILL NEVER DIE
CARVED IN THE WALL,
SEE THE TWO HALVES OF THE SIGN
THROUGH THE AGES HIS GLORY WILL ARISE
FOR ALL TIME
Forced into the catacombs unite to praise the King of kings they fear a revolution and the power that He brings heaven's sons stand as one, as believers in the blood of Christ
even in death we have true life (Enemies castigate
but darkness doth illuminate Irony: the blood we bleed
every drop this fire feeds
into forever...)
Lines of faith carved in the wall, a sign of peace abided Stare into the eyes of death clothed in the grace provided this will live on without me
CENTURIES FLY
BUT THE FLAME IS STILL ALIVE
THE MAY HIDE IT, BUT IT WILL NEVER DIE
CARVED IN THE WALL,
SEE THE TWO HALVES OF THE SIGN
THROUGH THE AGES HIS GLORY WILL ARISE
FOR ALL TIME
This will live on without me...
CENTURIES FLY
BUT THE FLAME IS STILL ALIVE
THE MAY HIDE IT, BUT IT WILL NEVER DIE
CARVED IN OUR SOULS,
SEE THE TWO HALVES OF THE SIGN
THROUGH THE AGES HIS GLORY WILL ARISE
