

Theocracy, The Healing Hand

1. The Gift

Gloria gloria underneath a burning star seeking their salvation see them searching for the ONE who's come to heal their nation prophesy incarnate holiness in flesh arrived the star has shown the path to life and hope is now alive

FOR UNTO EARTH IS BORN THE HOLY HAND

2. Restoration

See the multitudes surround this man of miracles the key to life they've found, He is the Son of God

Hear the suffering people cry for healing from this man as they reach out to touch a supernatural hand "take my scars, heal my wounds, give new life to me" the cry cleanse my stains, kill disease, Master, make this sickness die

Endless power, fueled by faith, restoration in one touch

Miracle, supernaturally disease is crushed

THE HOLY HAND BECOMES THE HEALING HAND

3. Adulation

Faith is Freedom, freedom faith

(repeat)

hear the people joined in praise to Christ incarnate holy one worthy is the lamb they say messiah prophesied has come honored for eternity, forever shall we give Him praise never will our hearts turn cold, we never shall betray

4. Betrayal

Hearts Once Soft have turned to stone left their king to die alone lips that once had echoed praise now mock the holy gift of grace prophecy fulfilled in death complete redemption with final breath

Israel lifting up her king not in praise, but suffering see the hand that drives the nail through the hand that never failed hear the laughter, see the games the mock salvation unashamed see the ones He came to justify coldly stand and watch him die rejected by his chosen land

The healing hand becomes the bleeding hand

5. Eternity

His kingdom forever, the Lion of Judah in strength everlasting redemption, atonement complete resurrected in power, as King now he stands

FOR THE BLEEDING HAND HAS BECOME THE RULING HAND

Faith-born forever, a part of His kingdom become

Or reject him, stand back and watch his kingdom come ALpha and omega almighty is he Christ reigns victorious for eternity

Eternity
