

Therese, Another Minute

Another minute!

I'm on my own even though you're with me
I sleep alone with your picture beside me,
Reality is a stranger I don't wanna know
Another minute to go,
I'm loading the car, I'm ready to go
I'm leaving an empty house behind
Tears in the rain from all the pain
I don't wanna face another day

I'd die for another minute with you
I'd kill for just a minute
I'd die for another minute with you
I'd die for, I'd die for!

And I remember you're just like a movie,
When you smiled my whole world was lifted
We'll keep the dreams and the future is still in our hands
Another minute to go
I kiss you goodbye, I promise to try
Though inside my heart is dying
Tears in the rain from all the pain
Making me face another day

I'd die for another minute with you
I'd kill for just a minute,
I'd die for another minute with you
I'd die for, I'd die for!

And when I think about you, I want you to feel it and when I pray for you, I know you can hear me
Another minute and I'd like you're still with me!

I'd die for another minute with you
I'd kill for just a minute,
I'd die for another minute with you
I'd die for, I'd die for!
