

Third Day, Caught Up In Yourself

Take a good look around you
And I'm sure that you are bound to Think that all you have comes down to
You and what you've done
If you look far beyond this
There's a life I hope you don't miss
What has kept you from moving on
Is learning to let go

And there's so much more
Than what you're looking for

Caught up in yourself
Call it like it is
Well, you're so good
But you'll never be good enough

You think if you surrender
It's the end, but just remember
Life is more than dying embers
Burning in your soul

And I know it's true
Cause I am just like you

Thank God for mercy
Thank God for His grace
Thank God for everything you've got
Before it's too late

And there's so much more
