Third Day, Give

You said all that follow you may find Comfort and pain, blessings in hard times

Were I to leave, where else would I go? The words of life and of truth you hold

CHORUS: All I want is love I confess to this I will take it, Lord All you have to give

How great the love lavished on us all That we can be the children of God