

Third Moon, Shadow

Follow the brainsick widow in her last show She's the dark side, the bitch of my soul
The hidden side, a force of destruction in my head
She will rest only when I am dead
Survive is my taste, she hopes I will fail
Too many excuses for her inner cruelty
She knows my dirty thoughts and vile secrets Criticises my every flaw with all signs of perversity
SHADOW let my sins fade away MOON my only bride forgive my coming acts, don't force me to survive She likes to place me in the most deadly situation she can and forces my will to indulge in many terrible acts Her ultimate goal is to shatter my will with terror loving my disbelief, when I see what I have become Survive is my taste, she hopes I will fail
Too many excuses for her inner cruelty
My final breath dies in the water where I slowly drown to kill the damned whore
