

Thirsty Merc, Dreamer

She's alright,
But I think about her more all night,
I guess im a dreamer, i really wanna see her now.

i buy her things things, if pretty polly wants, diamond rings.
i guess im a dreamer, i really wanna see her now.

Sometimes i call her name but does she even feel my pain i dont know if she even knows that im there

yeah yeah

well i take my time
but i only hear the same old line
i guess im a dreamer, i really wanna see her now

alright

i guess im a dreamer
yeah i guess im a dreamer well sometimes i call her name

you know i guess im a dreamer, i really wanna see her now take it away

i want us to be together
that is true

i guess im a dreamer, i really wanna see her...now
