

This Is A Standoff, My Baby Makes Me Watch Th

The day is done, it's friday night the guys are out to watch the fight these weekends make me awful glad the party's coming to my pad when I get home at runners speed disregarding my safety I'm taken aback to my surprise the look of date night in her eyes watch this shit painfully, disregarding what you see before you judge me you should know, the fighting scenes they kinda blow all curled up blanket socks another tissue from the box not what you'd call a sobbing creature watching all the bonus features stuck in hell, it's that so far gene shalit gives this four stars I'm kinda pissed, I'm kinda sour the party starts in half an hour world's apart for noh and al he's kinda bummed, he builds a house and then I turn where no one sees I must have choked or sneezed
watch this shit painfully, disregarding what you see
before you judge me you should know, the fighting scenes kinda blow
and now I'm reading every fucking book they're paid by her, she gives that look of pride my shame, I kinda like the scene they make out on the bike my friends all think I'm watching ufc
