

This Providence, Picture Day

this weather reflects my face rainy day
this place hurts my eyes i think i could break down and cry i enter each day with a sigh its so hard to wake when theres nothing at stake today i think im gonna break the hours drag on for what seems like days
and my thoughts wander
i guess ill wait and ill see it through it was all so hard but than i got you
another day has slipped right by ive done nothing just watched her quiet im stuck in here for a while ill be a moment in your eyes well being here is so hard to bear today i think im gonna break cause the hours drag on for what seems like days
and my thoughts wander
da dada dada da
da dada dada
dadada
[x2]
look at me with my fake smile it feels so wrong you got me im on your leash soon ill be gone
[x2]
today i think im gonna break
rainy day
and this place hurts my eyes
