

This Providence, The Road To Jericho Is Lined With

There's a man on the side of the road,
Left for dead, people passing by turn their head.
There's a man on the side of the road to Jericho,
Needs a friend.
Oh, we all could use a little more lovin', couldnt we?
So come on, love.
And give your love away with me.
Hold nothing back, like you've nothing to lose.
Love with all you have,
Like you dont have a clue what it's costing you.
There's a man on his way to a church,
Avoids the eyes of a dying soul, turns his head.
There's a child on the side of the road to Jericho,
Needs a friend.
Oh, we all could do a little more lovin', wouldnt you agree?
So come on, love,
Give your love away with me.
Hold nothing back, like you've nothing to lose.
Love with all you have,
Like you dont have a clue what it's costing you.
If lovin' were easy, it wouldnt be love.
If lovin' were easy, it wouldnt be love.
If lovin' were easy, it wouldnt be love.
Oh, will you give your love away?
If lovin' were easy, it wouldnt be love.
If lovin' were easy, it wouldnt be love.
If lovin' were easy, it wouldnt be love.
I'm gonna give away love
Oh, love with all you have and hold nothing back.
Oh, love with all you have, will you give your love away,
Will you give your love away?
