

This World Fair, No Someone

Cold city, my car won't start.
The slowly flooding engine's like the bottom of my heart
Feeling weightless as it starts to turn.
She was perfect, lesson turned, lesson learnt.

Oh it's cold,
with no someone to hold.
Oh it's cold,
with no someone to hold.

The past is frozen in present thought.
I knew you tried so hard.
Feelings for myself
I'm stealing your one wish,
Upon this star I could be happy
and alone,
but your memory alone is not enough.
With no someone to hold.

Oh it's cold,
with no someone to hold
I'm alone, with everyone I know.

When you go,
It won't be the same anymore.
When you go,
It won't be the same anymore.
When you go,
It won't be the same anymore.
When you go,
It won't be the same anymore.
When you go,
It won't be the same anymore.
When you go,
It won't be the same anymore.
When you go,
It won't be the same anymore.
When you go,
It won't be the same anymore.
When you go,
It won't be the same anymore.
When you go,
It won't be the same...anymore.
