

Thom Yorke & Flea, Daily Battles - Motherless Br

the lines are drawn
for daily battles
trumpet sound
for daily troubles

lock your dreams away
and wake it up
enough about
your broken heart

you're on parade
for daily battles
the other side
it has no face

upon its cause
we can't remember
enough about

for daily battles
an argument
I cannot start

lock your dreams
enough about
your broken heart
