

Thomas Dolby, Mulu The Rain Forest

If I'm not sleeping
It's because I'm frightened
Of what I might find
Behind the curtain
There is a signal
There is a warning
I will not heed them
Until I hear the morning dew
That trickles down my window
Mulu - the people of the rain forest
Believe in dreamtime
Real time inverted
Along a faultline
Below the surface
There is a sequence
There is a reason
For all the nightmares
All this mayhem
Mulu - the changes
