

Thomas Dybdahl, From Grace

it seems I have a weakness I didn't know about, till the day it rained & it seems my weakness has been bulging, has been forcing its way it seems I have a weakness I didn't know about, till the day it rained & it seems my weakness will become my final stage and it's here that I'll give, yeah I'll give you all my love and it's here that I'll give, yeah I'll give you all my love it seems I had a secret I didn't know about, till the day it poured & it seems my secret has been bulging, has been forcing its way & it seems i have a secret that will be my final stage & it seems i have a secret i didnt know about til the day it rained
and it's here that I'll give, yeah I'll give you all my love
and it's here that I'll give, yeah I'll give you all my love
