

Thousand Foot Krutch, Broken Wing

Here comes an opening, she's gotta broken wing,
If you can feel the sting,
Take care of everything, if she can make a scene,
I'll show you what I mean

She pack a loaded gun, set fire to anyone,
Knows how to make 'em run,
She's down on sixth street, she's goin' sixty,
She'll show you how to breathe

I don't want to see, I don't want to be,
I don't wanna be anyone, anymore,
I don't want to fake, I don't want to break,
I don't wanna say anything, anymore

Every time you walk away, I wish you'd stay,
Instead of pushin' further away,
Every time I hear you say, I just need one, to take this pain away

You're a broken wing, not a broken thing,
You can heal in time, if you try,
It'll be okay, you can walk away,
Sweet Julia...

Here comes an opening, he's gotta broken wing,
If you can feel the sting,
Take care of everything, if he can make a scene,
I'll show you what I mean
He packs a loaded gun, set fire to anyone,
Knows how to make 'em run,
He's down on sixth street, he's goin' sixty,
He'll show you how to breathe

I don't want to see, I don't want to be,
I don't wanna be anyone, anymore
I don't want to fake, I don't want to break,
I don't wanna say anything, anymore,

Every time ya walk away, I wish you'd stay,
Instead of pushin' further away,
Every time I hear you say, I just need one, to take this pain away
You're a broken wing, not a broken thing,
You can heal in time, if you try,
It'll be okay, you can walk away,
Sweet Julia...

And I won't laugh, I won't look, I won't listen if you just get up,
And I won't laugh, I won't look, I won't listen if you just stand

Every time I lie awake, I wish I, could take it all away,
Every time my heart breaks, I wish I could make it seem safe...

Every time ya walk away, I wish you'd stay,
Instead of pushin' further away,
Every time I hear you say, I just need one, to take this pain away
You're a broken wing, not a broken thing,
You can heal in time, if you try,
It'll be okay, you can walk away,
Julia...
