

Thousand Foot Krutch, New Design

Wait, I might hesitate
Am I a minute too late?
Please Lord, I need to know,
This pressure's got me letting go
If I'm wrong, will I still carry on
And end up where I belong?
I've never felt this way, before

I've never come so close
I've never worn so thin
I'm stepping out, instead of closing in
I left myself behind
When I made up my mind
No turning back this time
This is my new design

Sometimes, I feel so alone
It feels like I'm standing on my own
And I've never, felt so far from home it's coming on, it hits me when I step outside my zone

I see, what you're doing to me
Could've been you so easily but you look the other way
Even though we were close the other day
And I'm still trying to get up this hill
I need you just like a pill
And I've never felt this way before

Do ya get the feeling, everything will be alright?
I'm moving, so pleased to meet you
But I am moving on, tried to pass it to another
But it's coming on, I can't wait to find out Break me, I can't seem to climb out
Of this hole, I'm stuck again
If I'm not out in a minute, I'm jumping in Let's start again
I'm sick of this

Let's just, get it out, are ya feelin' it?
Move back, ya wanna feel how real it is?

Sometimes I feel so alone!
