They better call security, bring them straight jackets and handcuffs
Ain't takin it, ain't takin it
The clutches I be breakin it
And rippin off the bosses and tossin them to the floor, bricks
Going through the window, got that thing at your temple
When they bust, keep it trust, and we ain't talkin bout bustin pimples

We gonna get the dynamite trick, and blow the club up

No disrespect to the clubs, don't want none of it
But you got the three six mafia up in your house and
