

Three Days Grace, The Mountain

everyday I'm just surviving
keep climbing
the mountain
even when I feel like dying
keep climbing
the mountain

another night I'm barely dead and gone am I alive to die another day?
Is this a life that I've been living?
or that's meant for me?

keep climbing
the mountain
even when I feel like dying
keep climbing
the mountain

Every time I think I'm over it and I wake up in the bottom of it all again

I'm still surviving
keep climbing
keep climbing
the mountain

The higher I go the harder I fall so I don't look down I don't look back at all and when I wish it all would turn to black I try see the light and push the darkness back

keep climbing
the mountain
even when I feel like dying
keep climbing
the mountain

Every time I think I'm over it

keep climbing
keep climbing
the mountain

o if I'm not already too far gone and if I feel a pulsing I can carry on when I'm lost and want to fade away I tell myself to live
to die another day

keep climbing
the mountain
the mountain

Every time I think I'm over it

the mountain
