

Thrice, Acoustic Song

You came to me
I know not how
And showed me what true love is

You promised me
That you would stay
Forever here to hold my hand

Hallelujah
Sweet Rose of Heaven
I will praise you
With song forevermore

I bring to you
My broken life
You mend and make it better

I cry to you
With troubled mind
You sing to me a lullaby

You speak to me
Through songs of birds
And whisper in the weather

You sit me
Upon your knee
And wipe the tears from my eyes

Hallelujah
Sweet Rose of Heaven
I will praise
With song forevermore

His love endures forever
His love endures forever
His love endures forever

I wish I could paint your name in the sky
I wish I could paint your name in the sky
I wish I could paint your name in the sky

Hallelujah
Sweet Rose of Heaven
I will praise you
With song forevermore

Hallelujah
Sweet Rose of Heaven
I will praise you
With song forevermore
