

Thumb, Confidence

You failed so many times it's sad because one thing you've never had and that is confidence in you!
You went out thinking you're so weak...
you couldn't stand up on your feet, you didn't think your voice was heard by anyone at anytime...

These words sound stupid now, you've heard em all before...
But you don't understand ('em) so I'll make sure, you'll hear 'em once more....

"I know that I can make it...
I'll make it if I try...
I know that I can make it, if I have the guts to really try!!!
I know that I can take it...
I'll take it if I try...
I know that I can take it, if I have the guts to really try!!!"

You think it's easier said than done...you need no clues from anyone...nobody knows the way you s
Sometimes I'm negative myself...why this shit happens, I can't tell...I told you all about it, many time

Just love yourself...and you will be loved
If you just loved yourself...it would help so much...
(cause) you would understand...what it means to you you'd have some confidence...that would pull you through!

And you will be heard ...and I won't have to say these words forever...

I know that I can make it...
