

Thumb, Migraine

you're like a migraine, eating ev'rything inside...
you're like a fire, burning me while i'm still alive...
you will find me...no matter how well i hide...
and i tried... yes i tried!!

you're like a gun shot, killing what's in your way...
you're like a mistake, leading ev'rybody astray...
you're like an earthquake...shake me to the ground!
you're upside...and you're down!
...and you're all...that i will be!
...so you're all...that i will be now!

you're ev'rything inside of me...i can't let you go!
sometimes you're good, sometimes you're mean...you're all that i know!!

you're like a time bomb ticking away in my brain...
you're all i want...'cause you're always the same...
you're good for me, although you're suckin' me all dry...
but you're with me, 'til i die!
...so you're all...that i will be!
...and you're all...that will kill me now!

you're ev'rything inside of me...i can't let you go!
sometimes you're good, sometimes you're mean...you're all that i know!!
you're ev'rything inside of me ...i won't let you go!
sometimes you're great, sometimes your're mean!

you're like a time-bomb.....ticking away!!

sometimes you're good, sometimes you're mean...you're all that i know!!
you're ev'rything inside of me (i'll ever see!)...i won't let you go!
sometimes you're great, sometimes your're mean!
