

Thumb, Reality

As I take a look around to see everything that's going on around me, people that can clearly see, they're trying to be blind so they won't be a part of what I call reality, something deep inside of you and me, hidden somewhere back where you can't see, you're so afraid that you can't set it free. I don't know what's so bad to be real, I don't know why you're afraid to feel, what you gotta lose it can't be much, the only thing you seem to lose is touch.

I gotta know... won't you let me know... I can't believe... hey I've gotta live in my reality... reality. There's a tendency to look away if something in our lives leads us astray, you might have to find yourself where you can't see, you're so afraid that you can't set it free.

I don't know... I gotta know... won't you let me know... I can't believe we're always looking for truth in every lie we see... reality.

What you've got to lose it can't be much, what you're gonna do you're out of touch, who you're gonna
