

Thunder, Time To Get Tough

You spend the night, just wasting your time away waiting for a friend that didn't show
You wonder why you never tell them how you feel
All those freaky people that you know

Your mother calls to ask how it went today
Are you well and did you eat enough?
But what she really wants to know is something else
When will you settle down, and all that stuff
Enough!
It's time to get tough! Mmmm, uh

The girl you want is flirting with the competition
Then she tells you that she's in love
So you decide to tell her, he's the other way
To get your chances just a little shove
Shove! Mmm
It's time to get tough, uh

It's time to get tough
It's time to get tough
It's time to get tough
It's time to get tough, tough, tough
It's time to get tough, tough
