

Thunderstone, Drawn To The Flame

Playing with fire gets you burned
I knew it but still I didn't take heed
Two is company, three's a crowd
I knew that too but still I couldn't let go

It's burning me, burning me
Like a beggar for money I'm drawn
Between two fires I stand
Filled with a flame both bitter and sweet
It's burning me, burning me
Like a beggar for money I'm drawn

To the flame
I am the one to blame
Flame
I have been drawn to the flame
I'm burned by the fire
That is you
