

thuy, figured u out

i admit i lost focus u got me all off track all the signs unnoticed everybody told me fall back can i let it be noted yea i know i move too fast tryna build something that last is that too much to ask?

look what u started up what u started now what we got ourselves into (yea yea) but i'm smarter now, working harder now i ain't checking up on u take a good look what u lost just so u know what it cost used to be someone i call, now u mean nothing at all u 'gon see, u 'gon see one day (one day) u've been stuck in ur ways, ur old ways (always)

i figured u out
i'm 'bout my figures, i'm making a killing i'm thinking in bigger amounts i figured u out, know what u about tell me lies, ur always so defensive fill my head up with doubts, i won't bail u out it took time to come to my senses think ur clever, i know better took some time to figure it out u ain't clever, i know better took some time, but i figured u out actin like u so complex i already know what's next u keep me callin'

swear i keep fallin'
into every trap u set had to get up out real fast left u in the past that's that no love when i swerve right past cut u off, yea it's just like that break me down and u don't pick up the pieces (yea yea yea) but i built myself never really did need him (oh yea yea yea) u can change it all but u ain't changed at all i might take a loss, but u the one that lost

u've been stuck in ur ways, ur old ways (always)
