

Tia Carrere, Why You Wanna Break My Heart

Sometimes we get lost in the night
Sometimes we get lost in our lies
But I, I didn't wanna lose you
Maybe it's not in the cards
Why'd you let me down so hard
When all I ever wanted was to love you

Why you wanna break my heart
Why you wanna break my heart
Why you wanna break my heart
Why you wanna break my heart

Sometimes what seems wrong seems so right
Sometimes when we shouldn't we might
But all I ever wanted was you
I think of when I held you last
Oh love could you forget so fast
There's a little bit of you in everything that I do

And I wanna tell you about me
I asked you to stay and still you leave

Well I may look lonely and blue
But I've been here waiting for you
And I, I want an answer or two
