

Tiamat, The Ar

Within the heart of every man
This symbol is its deep
A truly all-descending power
But unfortunately still asleep

You may put your hands before your eyes
But its gleam it's neverending
How much you turn it inside oout
It conceals just understanding

"The five pointed grey star carven
The sign of the Aryan Race
The five pointed grey star carven
On the forehand of an evil face"
