

Tiffany Alvord, My Notebook(The Notebook Song)

I'm the kinda girl who is shy
I can't get up the guts to give it a try,
I have a crush that I can't deny
And I always see that chance pass me by
I wish I would not be so scared
I wish I could just be myself
I write his name a thousand times
Hearts and smileys on the line
Flirt with him give him a sign
But its only in my notebook, that he's mine
I'm the kinda girl who just stands back
I keep my thoughts and feelings to myself
I wish he'd know that I am there for him
But I am just to scared within
I wish I could jump off the page
Into that world that I have made
I write his name a thousand times
Hearts and smileys on the line
Flirt with him give him a sign
But its only in my notebook, that he's mine
oh, oohh, ohh, oh yeah
I wish I could jump off the page
Into that world that I have made
I write his name a thousand times
Hearts and smileys on the line
Flirt with him give him a sign
But its only in my notebook, that he's mine
And I could tell him everything
When I write it down,
So why can't I remember it
Whenever he's around
I get so nervous
So insecure, I don't know why
I wish I'd open up and not be so shy
I wish I could jump off the page
Into that world that I have made
I write his name a thousand times
Hearts and smileys on the line
Flirt with him give him a sign
But its only in my notebook,
Yeah, its only in my notebook that he's mine
